Description

Architecturally significant Victorian Row-home built after the Great Chicago Fire in 1882, situated in the coveted Old Town Triangle, steps from the lake, beach & beautiful Lincoln Park. This sophisticated jewel is appointed with the finest finishes-from gorgeous custom cabinetry, heated limestone & marble floors, to Waterworks bath fixtures. It's ready for today's living with Zero VOC hardwoods and a smart home sound/lighting/security system. An elegant entrance through 2 sets of double doors leads to the great room with 13' plaster ceilings, cove molding, 2 limestone fireplaces w/ bronze hearths, Bay windows, French doors and custom iron bookcases create a classic entertaining space. An exquisite glass-front butler's pantry with Venetian plaster walls and a marble counter holds silver and bar-ware. Gourmet kitchen features marble counters, classic subway tile, coffered ceiling, and appliances by Wolf, Gaggenau & Sub Zero. Heated stone floors carry through its walk-in pantry. French doors lead to a landscaped deck with Ipe wood and laser cut metal privacy screens; built-in kitchen; porcelain tile decking and LED lighting.
